WE NOMINATE

William Bradford Craig, 38-year old educational administrator, who during the past week—on the threshold of his fourth year as a Princetonian—assumed new responsibilities as Secretary of Princeton University's Scholarship Committee and as Acting Director of the ever-growing Bureau of Student Aid and Employment. In a period when education is battling desperately to hold in check the ravages of inflation, Craig has inherited a job that affects the well-being of some 35 per cent of Princeton's undergraduate body and involves an annual stake of $875,000, the total value by the end of the academic year of all scholarship grants, loans and "self-help" opportunities.

Like "scholarship specialists" throughout the land, Craig, a native of Short Hills, N. J., and until recently the University's Assistant Director of Admissions, will be trying to make a dollar do the work of two. Nationwide statistics point to the limited number of endowed, or sustaining, scholarships and emphasize the importance of gearing all aid to the individual's carefully documented needs, of constantly searching out new sources of student-aid income. In the national sense, the situation has deteriorated so rapidly that some institutions can no longer afford to "take" many of the qualified students they would like to have most.

Craig following World War II thought twice before returning to the field of education. He experimented during his early "civilian months," organizing new sales territories, supervising the allocation and shipment of machinery and discovering that education meant most to him as a lifetime occupation. He resigned from a sales post and early in 1947 joined the faculty of a private Colorado secondary school where he found time for summer work at Harvard and in 1950 qualified for a Master's Degree in education at Colorado College. Prior to the war he had taught and coached at the Kent School in Connecticut and had also been associated with an investment banking firm in New York City.

As a member of the Princeton Class of 1938—over which he now presides—Craig helped make financial ends meet by waiting on tables in the dining halls, selling laundry contracts and also keeping the books for his upperclass eating club. Three years after he had received his Army reserve commission here he was called to active duty and quietly proceeded to compile a brilliant record that included 40 months of overseas service with the Ground Forces. In the bloody Solomons, while the Army was mastering the rudiments of amphibious warfare, he won the Distinguished Service Cross and the Purple Heart and later, before moving "up" to Japan, was awarded the Bronze Star on Luzon.

For believing that nothing can be more worthwhile than working for the advancement of others; for understanding the "admissions and scholarship problems" which colleges and universities must face and solve, if they are to attain their broad educational goals; he is the Editors' nominee for Action for a By-Pass Increases.

Residential areas in the borough and township fear property devaluation from increasing truck traffic. In University classroom and conference buildings on Washington Road, lecturers stop speaking until the noise of passing monsters of the road abates. The newest of such buildings, Woodrow Wilson Hall, was actually designed without windows on two sides as the only way to assure normal quiet throughout the day.

School officials study the problem of routing children to and from their daily work on roads where traffic hazards are not increasing daily. In short, Princetonians in many parts of the community, for a variety of sound reasons, are eager for a truck by-pass.

Trucks and other through traffic drive 24 hours a day over the State Road, Bayard Lane, Stockton, Nassau and Harrison Streets and Washington Road. The solution, admittedly a major achievement, would be a by-pass northeast of the community from Route 206 (the Somerville Road) to US 1.

Long-range plans of the State Highway Department have—since before the war—called for such an artery linking these two main thoroughfares but the exact route has not yet reached the blueprint stage. A sum in excess of $4,000,000 is involved, and there is no definite indication that such an amount is at hand for this specific project.

The newly-formed Princeton By-Pass Committee is firm in its opinion, however, that its goal can be won if sufficient public interest is aroused. It points out that funds far greater than $4,000,000 are spent annually by the Highway Department and that the best way to gain attention for the Princeton By-Pass is to indicate the volume of community interest behind it.
Or, as Borough Council President John A. Archer said, "to proceed on the theory that the wheel that squeaks the loudest gets the grease."

Residents of Lawrence Township have joined Princetonians in working for the by-pass, with efforts at present bent primarily toward petition-signing. A minimum of 1,000 names is sought, with the figure of 2,000 considered more likely to achieve response. Copies of the petition are available for signatures at Town Topics, 4 Mercer Street.

The By-Pass Committee consists of Mrs. Charles J. Young, Mrs. Raymond C. Brickley, Thomas H.
Moran, John S. Helmick, B. E. Ber-
gesen, William G. Mollenkopf, Frank G. Evatt, Frederick J. Githler, Otto A. Piper, Richard Pearson, John W. Landis, Seymour Montgomery, Robert M. Dix, Charles W. Roll, Joseph R. Shultz and Mrs. R. H. Sullivan.

A Second Shopping Center. While the Princeton Shopping Center continues rapid progress towards its opening next spring, the pros-their project from the Lawrence Township Committee and have announced that construction will start in "late 1954 or early 1955."

 The site is between the Brunswick Pike (U.S. 1) and the Princeton Pike and the 62-acre center will have 2,000-foot frontage on both thoroughfares. Reported to be the largest shopping unit yet planned in New Jersey, it will cost an estimated $12,000,000.

The center has been designed to include a full complement of department, food, specialty and allied stores, as well as refreshment facilities and other services. Parking space will be available for 4,500 cars.

Despite the pending completion of the Princeton Shopping Center and the existing business facilities in the Central Jersey area, the developers of the Lawrence project are apparently basing their plans on the area's continuing industrial and residential growth. The center will be less than five minutes from the recently-opened Trenton Freeway.

A new date has been set for the Princeton Shopping Center's Sports Car Show: Saturday and Sunday, December 5 and 6. The free show will be held inside the center's buildings in order to avoid trouble with the weather, which forced cancellation of the event earlier this month.

Among the features of the $5,300,000 project will be The Ranch Room, a restaurant designed to accommodate 300 patrons. It will occupy a major part of the Sun Ray Drug Store and will be finished in California redwood, natural stone and brick.

Y's Set Date. The YMCA and YWCA this week announced that plans for their drive to raise funds for a new joint building have been revised in order not to conflict with Princeton Hospital's current campaign to raise $150,000 as a memorial to the late Curtis W. McGraw. Francis G. Clark, YM general secretary, reported that the appeals for special gifts would start at the close of next year's community Chest campaign and that general public solicitation will be launched in the spring of 1955.

The two organizations have been planning for the new building for a number of years. The structure will include a swimming pool, meeting rooms and other facilities for Y programs.

In a letter to the hospital's board of trustees, the YMCA and YWCA expressed their disappointment at the prospect of postponement of their drive, but pledged their "strong support as citizens of the Princeton Community in your work toward honoring a distinguished citizen whose life and work in Princeton meant so much to all of us." The letter was signed by Frederick J. Worthington and Dr. Elmer W. Engstrom for the YMCA, and Mrs. James K. Quay and Mrs. E. Harris Harrison for the YW.

Hospital Fund Grows. A gift of $50,000 honoring Mr. McGraw has been received by Princeton Hospital from the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company to help develop the Curtis W. McGraw Laboratories. An additional $13,000 has been raised toward the memorial to the former president of the hospital trustees.

At the time of his death in September, Mr. McGraw was working for the immediate and substantial expansion of the hospital's laboratory and x-ray departments so that the triple use of these facilities in recent years could be absorbed. The hospital trustees created the —Continued on Page 4—

It's New to Us

The Wheeling Year. We've done almost a full turn around the sun since the last Christmas column we wrote, wishing you a new year of peace and happiness. Now, in the hope that our wish came true for you, we are ready to start Christmas all over again. So far as shopkeepers and shopping-column writers are concerned, it seems to come earlier every year; we expect sometime to meet ourselves coming back.

Five columns for you in all. This first one will consider the investment pieces, the gifts you plan ahead for, the family presents that belong to everybody. In subsequent issues, we'll tell you what we found in toy stores; the personal apparel shops (all ages and sexes); the stores that sell household wares; and, finally, if the typewriter ribbon holds out, the food and drink markets and the counters full of stocking stuffers.

Plug It In. An automatic washing machine could be the gift of a lifetime for the right woman. (You mean me?) If you buy—or if he buys: let's not kid ourselves — a Frigidaire automatic washer at Peresett Appliance (246 Nassau), it will be delivered surreptitiously on Christmas Eve, wrapped in cellophane and tied with a large red bow (washable of course.) Easy Spindriers are in this store, too.

At Nassau Appliance (252 Nassau), the brand is Bendix. Here is a new Duomatic washer-dryer that does both automatically in one continuous operation. It soaks, too.

Dishwashers here at Nassau are by Hotpoint. Peresett has dishwashers by Kitchenaid.

Clothes and dishes may be clean, but how about floors? Here are Hoover vacuums at Nassau Appliance and The Rug Mart on the Somerville Road. The GE Swivel-Top vacuum is at Nassau, and the unique Lewyt is on display at Peresett and The Wright Store (130 Nassau.)

With a new vacuum, a dishwasher and an automatic washing machine, your work will be done so quickly that you can spend twice as much time watching television. There's a new Philco 24-inch set at Nassau Appliance—what child wouldn't love Howdy Doody for Christmas?

Smaller electrical appliances start with rotisseries and go down to flashlights. We'll mention in particular a Roto-Broil Rotisserie at The Wright Store for $49.95. It has a timer, and the means to fry, broil, barbeque and look extremely impressive. Without rotisserie, it's $29.95. Another rotisserie called the Broil-Quik Chef sells at Peresett. You may buy this one without the spinner, too.

More mixers in town than cooks to use them. Sunbeam is at Peresett, Urken's (27 Witherspoon), The Wright Store, and Tiger Auto (26 Witherspoon); Hamilton Bench at Tiger Auto, Peresett, and Urken's; General Electric at Urken's, Peresett, and The Wright Store; Kitchenaid at The Wright Store and Peresett; and Betty Crocker at Peresett.

As you know, almost any piece of electrical equipment from TV sets on down, is sold at Sears, Roebuck through its catalogue order store at 73 Palmer Square West. You have until December 11, approximately, to place an order for Christmas delivery.

memorial laboratories in recognition of his interest in these departments, and a group of Mr. McGraw's friends, voluntarily suggested that they raise $150,000 to underwrite the cost.

Chest Drive Progresses. "Success is in sight," Stuart R. Gerber, general chairman of the Community Chest campaign, reported this week in announcing the current total of gifts and pledges as better than 80% of the $124,000 goal. First to top its quota was the house-to-house division directed by Mrs. Donald A. Fruland. The sum of $22,574 now at hand is $400 over the amount sought and more is expected.

The Business Division, seeking in excess of $18,000, expects to top its goal shortly. About $2,000 is still needed, Chairman Maurice A. Mather reports.

The Special Gifts Division, under the direction of William D. Lippincott, has better than 60% of its $65,000 quota. A month or so of activity is still planned in this section, which began its drive later than the business campaign.

Reward for Thrift. The first National Bank is distributing more than a quarter of a million dollars to members of its Christmas Club. President John P. Poe announced this week. Total payments to members of the 1953 club are $259,075.50, Mr. Poe reported.

He added that it is the bank's hope that the money will be spent within the community, in keeping with the legend on each check, "Buy in Princeton." "This record-breaking distribution should help make a happy Christmas," Mr. Poe said, "not only for families of those who saved this substantial sum, but also for their friends and neighbors who are in business to supply the wants and needs of our Princeton community."

Jamieson Elected. The First National also made news this week with the announcement that the Honorable Crawford Jamieson has been elected a director to fill a vacancy on the board.

A member of the firm of Jamieson and Walsh, which maintains offices here and in Trenton, Mr. Jamieson attended Princeton with the Class of 1923 and received his law degree from Rutgers in 1926. Since that time, he has been an assemblyman and state senator from Mercer County and, from 1942-45, Public Utility Commissioner of New Jersey. He is vice-president of the Mercer County Bar Association, a director of the Standard Fire Insurance Company and a trustee of Rutgers Law School.

Service of Installation. Dr. George Stoddard, former president of the University of Illinois, will deliver the principal address at the service of installation of the Rev. Straughan L. Gettier as the first minister of the Unitarian Church of Princeton. The service will take place at 4 Sunday in the assembly room of the First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Stoddard, who resigned from the Illinois post last summer following an extended controversy with the trustees and other state figures and is now a resident of Princeton, will speak on "The Way of the Liberal." He is the moderator of the American Unitarian Association.

Simeon Hutner, president of the church congregation, will perform the act of installation at the service. The Rev. Dr. John R. Bodo will extend a community welcome to Mr. Gettier. Others taking part will include the Rev. John G. MacKinnon of the First Unitarian Church, Wilmington, Del.; the Rev. Dale DeWitt, Middle Atlantic regional director of the American Unitarian Association, and the Rev. Leland Higginbotham, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Hightstown.

The newly-formed church was chartered by the national organization last June after three years of growth from the original small fellowship. Services for the congregation of more than 70 families are held at Avalon. Mr. Gettier formerly served as pastor of the First Parish of West Roxbury, Mass., one of the oldest Unitarian Churches in the country.
Christmas Fair. The Women's Guild of the Second Presbyterian Church will hold its annual Christmas Fair this Friday from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M. The fair will feature a large array of gifts and will include a turkey dinner at 5:30, 6:15 and 7 o'clock. Tickets for the dinner are on sale at Hinkson's.
General chairman of the event is Mrs. Robert D. McGilvra. She will be assisted by a planning committee consisting of Mrs. Starr Northrop, Mrs. Thomas Craig, Mrs. James Rowan, Mrs. J. W. Kurtz, Mrs. Nicholas Carnevale, Mrs. John Van Winkle, Mrs. Robert Donald, Mrs. T. D. Vreeland, Mrs. A. L. Jamison and Mrs. Robert McDonough.
Booth chairmen under the direction of Miss Lavinia Stewart, treasurer, are: Mrs. Robert Donald, dolls and toys; Mrs. Alfred Summers, baked goods; Mrs. Margaret Fraser, knitted goods; Mrs. J. A. Kurtz, treasure table; Mrs. Marjorie Baker, lilliputian; Mrs. Walter Beers, candy; Mrs. A. M. Wert and Mrs. Roger Slayback, aprons; Mrs. L. S. Silvester, green thumb; Mrs. Hugh Donley, white elephant; and Mrs. Thomas Craig, Christmas booth.
Also: Mrs. Louis Sherman, supper tickets; Mrs. James A. Rowan, publicity; Mrs. Duncan Augustine, refreshment booth; and Mrs. Raymond Waag and Mrs. T. D. Vreeland, kitchen. Serving as advisors are Mrs. William L. Tucker and Mrs. George Knaefler.
Bicycle Safety. The Princeton Junior Chamber of Commerce will initiate a bicycle safety campaign Saturday morning, November 28, at 10 with a program at the Princeton High School.
James J. Williams, chairman of the event, has announced that the program will open with a film on bicycle safety provided by the New Jersey Bureau of Safety Education, followed by a talk by Patrolman Frank Bird of the Borough Police.
An inspection of bicycles and a riding test will complete the activities. All riders whose bicycles have been judged safe and who successfully complete the riding test will receive certificates. The session will be open to all.
Personnel Changes. The appointment of W. Bradford Craig as secretary of the University Scholarship Committee at Princeton and Acting Director of the Bureau of Student Aid and Employment has been announced by Dr. Harold W. Dodds, President of the University. He will succeed Minot C. Morgan, Jr., who was named general manager of the Institute for Advanced Study last week.
Bernard S. Adams, formerly Assistant to the Director of Student Employment, will succeed Mr. Craig as assistant director of Admissions. A graduate of the class of 1950 at Princeton, he returned to the University this fall following his discharge from the Air Force.
Samuel C. Howell, also of the class of 1950 and a resident of Princeton, will become Assistant to the Director of Student Employment. The son of Professor and Mrs. Wilbur S. Howell, 20 Armour Road, he was discharged from the Army last month after serving in Korea.
Bedford Honored. Alda V. Bedford of Jefferson Road has been awarded the Vladimir Zworykin Television Prize for 1954 by the Institute of Radio Engineers.
The award goes each year to engineers who have made important contributions to electronic television. Mr. Bedford, who is associated with RCA Laboratories here, will receive the prize at the institute's annual dinner next March.
Square Dance. Final plans for the Township P.T.A.'s fund-raising square dance Saturday night at the High School gym have been completed, it has been announced by Mrs. Herbert Hobler, chairman.
The affair, featuring both square and round dancing as well as a cakewalk and a turkey for a door prize, will start at 9 with tickets on sale at the door. Corporal James Mayo of Fort Dix will call the squares.

Assisting Mrs. Hobler are Mrs. Donald Craig and Mrs. J. I. Marck, ticket sales; Mrs. Thomas Mederos, Mrs. Robert Serrell and Mrs. Donald Rugg, publicity; Mrs. John McAndrew, refreshments; Mrs. Richard Snyder, decorations; and James Sayen, general arrangements.

Original posters announcing the event have been designed by Mrs. Donald Hamilton, Shepard Kimbly, Jr., Roger Boone, Mrs. Robert Serrell, Miss Peggy Wilbur, Miss Jean Fatula, Mrs. Richard Anderson, Mrs. John Nelson, Mrs. Robert Dilley, Miss Sara Wilbur, Miss Nancy Dinsmore and Miss Connie Craig.

Valley Road News. A full-time remedial reading teacher will be added to the staff at the Valley Road School for 1954-55, the Township Board of Education has announced. Action was taken following a report on the need for such a program submitted by Mrs. Bertha Eisenmann, school superintendent, and Radcliffe Daly, vice-principal.

Next month, Mrs. Kate Nicoll, board president, will submit a report on the methods and cost of surveying the district's population trends. Dr. J. Donald Butler will report on the size of classes at the elementary grade level and will recommend future policy for the board on this problem. Dr. William S. Carpenter will discuss instruction in modern languages at the elementary level. Action to be taken will be reflected in the next budget, which will be prepared at an executive session on December 17.

The board has accepted an estimate of $765 from Russell M. Bettes of Rosedale Nursery for an addition to the playground. The area will be bulldozed, rough-graded and top soil will be added.

Christmas Bazaar. The Parent-Teacher Association of St. Paul's School will hold a Christmas bazaar Thursday, December 17 from 7 to 10 P. M. and Friday, December 18, from 1 to 5 P. M. in the auditorium of the school. Fifteen booths will have on display gifts, toys and foods.

The Rug Mart has donated a complete linoleum inlaid kitchen or bathroom floor to be given away during the bazaar. Mrs. Frederick J. Singer, Jr., has been named chairman of the event.

Y.W.C.A. Reception. The Princeton Y.W.C.A. will hold a reception in honor of its new program director, Miss Beatrice McGhee, on Sunday from 4 to 6 at 202 Nassau Street. In the receiving line for the reception will be Mrs. James K. Quay, president; Mrs. John W. Johnson, first vice-president; Mrs. Julian Bonfante, second vice-president; Miss Esther Todd, executive director; and Miss McGhee. In charge of arrangements for the reception are Mrs. Howard Hunt, chairman; Mrs. Bruce Metzger, Mrs. Kenneth M. Ritchie and Mrs. William H. Sword.

The Y.W.C.A. also announced that the Princeton Hostelling Club will hold an outing in Ralph Stover State Park this weekend. Cabins have been reserved for the group, and food cooked by the club's cooks will be provided as part of the reservation fee. Transportation will be furnished Saturday morning and afternoon.

Officers Elected. The Hun School's Parents' Day last Saturday was attended by more than 100 guests of the school, the largest number on record for such an occasion. The school plans a square dance and social dancing Saturday night, with some 30 girls from Moravian Seminary present for the occasion.

Officers of the Fathers Association have been elected for the next 12 months: John L. Kuser, Jr., Titusville, president; Charles Gehrich, Bayside, L. I., vice-president; Frank V. Walsh, Trenton, secretary; Myron LaVake, Jr., Princeton, treasurer. Trustees include Dr. Jesse Aaronson, Walter Hankin and Robert Edwards, all of Trenton.

Obituaries
 Dr. Frank Jewett Mather Jr., 85, Marquand Professor of Latin and a nationally known art critic and historian, died November 11 at the Princeton Hospital. His home was at 3 Evelyn Place.

Dr. Mather joined the Princeton faculty in 1910, having taught previously at Williams and served as an editorial writer and art critic on the New York Post. He retired in 1933, but continued as director of the Princeton Art Museum until 1947. A graduate of Williams in 1889, he received an honorary L.H.D. there in 1913.

Dr. Mather was the author of many books and articles in his field and was a life member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He is survived by his wife, the former Ellen S. Mills; a son and a daughter. Interment was in Deep River, Conn.

Peter Mazzio, 63, of Exing Street, died November 13 after a long illness. A resident of Princeton for 27 years, Mr. Mazzio had been employed at the Army depot in Belle Mead.

He was the husband of the late Adeline Mazzio. He is survived by four daughters, including Mrs. Mario Trank, Mrs. America Arcadia, Mrs. Virginia N. Stark, Mrs. Irene Valley Road, Wiltshire, and Miss Elvira Mazzio of Princeton; a sister; and three grandchildren. Solemn high requiem mass was celebrated at St. Paul's Church, followed by interment in the parish cemetery.

Mrs. Evelyn Moore of 31 Jackson Street, died November 14 at Princeton Hospital. Wife of Cornelius Moore, Sr., she also leaves four daughters, Mrs. Mary Vernon, Mrs. Grace McEwen, Frances and Martha Moore; seven sons, Cornelius, Jr., James, Alphonso, Sidney, William, Joseph and Terry, all of Princeton; a brother and 11 grandchildren. A service Thursday afternoon at the Church of God in Christ will be followed by burial in Princeton Cemetery.

Mrs. Agata Petrone 74, widow of John Petrone, died November 11 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Bocciafuso of 64 Birch Avenue. In addition to her daughter, she is survived by a brother, John Petrone of Princeton; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Solemn requiem mass was celebrated at St. Paul's Church and interment followed in the parish cemetery.

Pray, died November 12 at her home. In addition to her husband, she is survived by a brother and two sisters. Services were held at Trinity Church and interment was in Forest Hills Cemetery, Boston.

Jesse C. Wells, Sr., 54, of 27 Baren Avenue, died suddenly at home on November 12. A lifelong resident of Princeton he had been employed at the Nassau Tavern since 1937.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Edith F. Wells; five sons, including Jesse C. Wells Jr. and Edmund Wells of Princeton; five daughters, the Misses Ruth, Mildred, Doris, Jean and Blanche, all of Princeton; seven grandchildren; three sisters and a nephew. Services were held at the Witherspoon Presbyterian Church, with interment in Princeton Cemetery.

Canned Goods Collection. The Princeton Circle of the Florence Crittenton Mission will hold its annual collection of canned goods for the benefit of the home in Trenton from Friday through Wednesday. Collection containers will be placed in 11 locations throughout the city: the Nassau, St. Paul's, Missions, Valley Road, Wiltshire, Mrs. Fire's, Mrs. Chapman's Schools, Marsh's Drugstore, Schaefer's Market, Bannan's and Thorne's Drug Store.

Adult Workshops. Princeton Group Arts has announced that registration is still open for the remaining term of some of its adult workshops, ending February 6. Workshops for the present term will close December 12 for the holiday, resuming on January 4. Persons entering for the remaining term will pay only half the registration fee.

An orientation course in Fundamentals of Design, directed by Margaret K. Johnson, meets Monday evenings at 8. Leonard Heinrich instructs the Jewelry Craft workshop Mondays at 7:30. Painting for advanced and beginning students is given on Tuesday and Wednesday nights at 8 by Mary Lou Kostal and Huseyin Halit, respectively, with a model available Wednesday evenings. Sculpture and water color painting, under the direction of Gina Plunigian, is offered Thursday evenings at 8.

Bazaar Planned. December 1 has been selected by the Women's Fellowship for a bazaar. The bazaar will be held at the Princeton Hotel.

per will be served from 5 to 7 by the Young Adult Group. Mrs. Nelson Cox, Mrs. Malcolm Oleson and Mrs. Cyril Davidson are arranging this event, with Edwin Forman in charge of tickets.

Voice of Democracy. The Princeton High School, Miss Fine's School and The Hun School will participate in the eighth annual "Voice of Democracy" contest sponsored by the National Junior Chamber of Commerce. It was announced this week by Lewis S. Kraft of the Princeton Junior Chamber of Commerce, chairman of the event.

line. These new pieces, from train case size to pullman size, are vinyl-treated plastic in blue, grey or brown. They are arranged for your inspection at Luttman's, 132 Nassau. This moderate price for Amelia Earhart is quite sensational in the luggage world and we suggest that you consider.

For men, the Lido luggage people have made a one-suit or a two-suit in topgrain cowhide. It comes in suntan or a shade called weathered oak. In the light-weight luggage, there's Lido-lite, a vinyl bag in suntan. Comes in sizes ranging from the weekend to Pullman sizes. One and two-suiters, too.

Wow. While we are talking about men, let us consider the breed known as the hi-fi addict. (Few women in this category, for some puzzling reason.) If your husband is addicted, the best present you could give him is a blank check made out to the Princeton Music Center, 7 Palmer Square West.

Here he will find tuners, turntables and amplifiers by Radio Craftsmen, Fisher, Altie, Garrard, Lansing and Rekokut; tape recorders by Magnacord and Concertone.

In the moderate price field, there are Bell amplifiers for around $50, Browning FM tuners, and inexpensive speakers from about $15 that do quite well if they are properly baffled. (As you yourself may well be, by this time.)

If you'd like to have some say in the matter yourself, you may look over the Music Center's catalogues and select the cabinets that would look best in your living-room. Delivery on these in about two weeks from the time you order. The Service Department at the Music Center can adapt all this equipment to individual homes, as you may know.

Incidentally, there is a binaural set-up in the Center now, if you'd like a fresh listening experience.

For Rest and Food. For some reason, this is the time of the year when people buy dining room furniture. Up until November they eat from card tables, but when Thanksgiving and Christmas begin to loom, they flock to buy those long tables that seat all the relatives. At least, that's what they told us at the Furniture Mart on the Somerville Road.

Here they have Drexel mahogany dining room sets that will stretch to the kitchen and back, if you want one like that. Smaller sets, too, we hasten to say.

At Nassau Interiors, 162 Nassau, there is a cherry drop-leaf table ($129) that will extend to seat 12 people.

At both these stores, there are ranks of end tables. The Furniture Mart has Masman end and cocktail tables in mahogany for $19.95. Nassau Interiors is showing end tables in modern or provincial designs, and a serving cart in a tobacco finish with two shelves and a small drawer.

For a lady who likes the traditional, here's an exquisite little mahogany lady's desk at the Furniture Mart. It stands about four feet high with four drawers outside and tiny pencil drawers behind its slanted front. For $149. Knee-hole desks here, too, many of them with leather tops.

Willett's famous Transitional Modern at Nassau Interiors has a

IT'S NEW TO US
 cherry desk with flat top and drawers down one side. It costs $121.50.

All the time we were note-taking at Nassau Interiors we were sitting in a small contour chair that would bring comfort to anyone in your family. Spare and neat, it has arms that stand free of the back and seat, a gentle contoured slope, and a separate ottoman. Inside, it's curled hair, reinforced with rubber, to make it resilient but firm. For $59.95 in brown, charcoal, hunter green or coral tweed.

Two children who share a room would love a pine bunk bed with guard rail, ladder, springs and mattress for $189. Parents themselves would be happier with a maple bedroom set, four pieces for $159.
 The bunk beds are at Nassau Interiors. The maple bedroom set is at The Furniture Mart.

To go under it all, consider a cotton rug from The Rug Mart. Every color on the palette, even a shell pink. The smallest is $4.95 and they go up from there.

Christmas in November. Some of Princeton's most gifted craftsmen give their talents to the annual Bazaar of the Second Presbyterian Church. The articles for sale this year are as original and well-made as ever. One piece you'll want to see is a dough tray, hand made and hand rubbed, to use as an occasional table. One of the hand-branded rugs would go with it perfectly.

Lots of cocktail aprons, including an absurd little fluff of violet net, and a sophisticated one in black with strokes of white.

For the youngest ones on your list, here are doll clothes, sewn by careful fingers that attended to the smallest detail; see the white lace mitts on the bride doll, and the lace edging to pinafore. Many dolls are hand-made too, with good firm stitches. No loving-hands-at-home look to these Presbyterian Bazaar articles. Put aside your big shopping for the afternoon and stop at the Church for some unusual gifts.

Ice. The big gift in your Christmas year may be neither a 24-

Any pupil in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades of the three schools may enter by writing and recording a five-minute speech on "I Speak for Democracy." Each school will present its three best speeches to a panel of local judges, consisting of Mrs. Florence R. Van Deventer, H. Gordon Dyke, Thomas Brophy, Junior Chamber president
 J. Walter Exon and Murray Kempton.

Miscellany. Twins, a boy and a girl, have been born at Princeton Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. T. C.
 Lonquest, 218-B King Street. Parents of sons include Mr. and Mrs.
 Colin T. Lancaster, RD 1; Mr. and Mrs. Felix Falk, Springdale Road;
 Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howland,
 Carter Road; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Powner, Princeton Junction.

Daughters have been born to Mr.
 and Mrs. Farhat Ziadob, 67 Wiggins Street; Mr. and Mrs. John R.
 Lasley, Princeton Junction; Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Pierpoint, 3
 Princeton Avenue; Mr. and Mrs.
 Marshall M. Carpenter, Jr., Jefferson Road.

Charges of disorderly conduct brought respective workhouse terms of 60 days and 12 months to Andrew Hatcher, 33 Green Street, and William Macintosh, 29 Moran Avenue. Magistrate Paul R. Chesebro fined Harry P. Hairston, 290 Witherspoon Street, $30 for driving a car without a license.

Senior Girl Scout Troop 13 met last week at the home of Mrs. Edwin Bevensen, to celebrate its fifth anniversary under her leadership.

LOOKING FOR PRICE AND QUALITY TOO?

THE LOWEST BIDDER

It's unwise to pay too much, but it's worse to pay too little. When you pay too much, you lose a little money—that is all. When you pay too little, you sometimes lose everything, because the product you bought was incapable of doing the thing it was bought to do. The common law of business balance prohibits paying a little and getting a lot—it can't be done. If you deal with the lowest bidder, it is well to add something for the risk you run. And if you do that, you will have enough to pay for something better.

News of the Theatres

Shaw Lives; Production? "Arms and the Man" continues its run at Murray Theatre with performances nightly through Saturday. The production has its troubles, but you can hardly miss having a good time with G. B. Shaw's satirical flashes.

The chief quibble from this corner with the Intime version is the interpretation of Captain Bluntschli: he seemed on too many occasions to be an overage boy scout. This reader takes him as the chief spokesman for Shaw, realistic enough to see through the sentimentalities of war and love, but finally a romantic.

Thus it seemed that Mickey Voulkitchevitch lost part of the satire, although understandably enough his voice and build worked against him at times. Eileen Heupel as Louka, Sandy McNally as Petkoff, Morton Goolde as Sergius and Rayna Barroll as Raina were somewhat more successful.

The sets (by Ed Baird) and the costumes were of the Intime's usual high order and the production was certainly energetic. Despite the above points of dissent it's hard to go very far wrong with one of Shaw's most sparkling displays of witty insight.

The Lady's Not for Burning will be the next Murray Theatre tenant, with the Community Players' production coming in next Friday for a run of ten days. Tickets may be obtained at the University Store, at the box office and by calling Mrs. Allan McGaskill (tel. 0432-M.) There will be no performance on Sunday.

The Christopher Fry play (in which John Gielgud and Pamela Brown starred on Broadway) will be directed by Richard Nicholls of Carter Road. Mr. Nicolls is a veteran of virtually every aspect of show business, having appeared in 16 Broadway shows, written, produced and directed for TV, radio and the films.

The cast will be composed of many familiar faces as well as newcomers. Among the players will be Karl Light, Selly Weber, Henry Siegle, Frank Schmertz, Ann Kolbe, Philip Minor, Olivia Wood, Douglas Dougherty, A. M. Wade, Lorin Zissman and Stuart Duncan.

THE PLAYHOUSE

Calamity Jane (Thurs.-Sat.) features Doris Day, Howard Keel and Allyn McLerie in a bouncy Technicolor musical. This is strictly entertainment of the careless plot variety, accompanied by a dozen songs and a good deal of vitality in the pace. Keel is a fairly dull Wild Bill Hickok, but the appealing Miss Day has fun in the title role. She makes Hickok look powderpuffy until she goes feminine to get her man. Very healthy stuff.

The Big Heat (Sun.-Tues.) is a loose detective melodrama, done in standard fashion. Glenn Ford plays a detective who finds out that the underworld element is tied to the city administration, etc., with considerable violence ensuing. Gloria Grahame is the gangster's moll who winds up helping Ford.

Kiss Me Kate (starts Wed.) This fine musical treat in Technicolor will play through Saturday as a 3-D feature and from Sunday to Tuesday in regular form (2-D.) Both engagements will be at regular prices, but the polaroid glasses will cost ten cents so bring your old ones if you have 'em.

A thorough scrubbing of Cole Porter's lyrics and the Spewack book didn't do too much harm to the great Broadway hit. Kathryn Grayson, Howard Keel, Ann Miller and Tommy Rall do a competent job and the whole thing adds up to colorful bouncy entertainment. But while "Kate" is by far the best film done in 3-D, there's a sneaking suspicion that the extra dimension adds little to the entertainment.

THE GARDEN

Houdini (Fri.-Sat.) is a prettified Technicolor biography of the legendary Harry Houdini, master magician and escape artist. Tony Curtis and Janet Leigh are an attractive Mr. and Mrs. Houdini and some of the remarkable feats of bodily control, etc., come out fairly well on the screen.

inch screen nor a bow-tied washing machine. It may be an intimate, personal gift that marks a very special Christmas in your life. For such an occasion there are diamond rings, ranging in price from $75 to $1,000. These are at The Watch Shop, 20 Nassau, where you may also look at other rings made with precious stones. Ruby rings, for example, which come with or without diamond.
For men, The Watch Shop has fraternal jewelry like the Masonic ring with its diamonds. Higher priced watches in this shop are by Hamilton, Elgin and Bulova.

At Pakman's, 9 Witherspoon, you'll find watches by Longines (Wittnauers included), Bulova and Benrus, for men and women. At Pakman's, you may have either a free stretch wristband, or 10% off on your watch, whichever you prefer.
Pieces of old English silver command your attention at The Silver Shop, 59 Palmer Square West. Here's a unique spoon-warmer from the 18th century. Shaped like a giant snail shell, it has a lid that opens at one end to receive the spoons. You could plant ivy in it, but we think you'll prefer it just as it is.

Old silver serving spoons and ladles are treasures your family will keep for generations. So are Spode pieces, like the Delft blue and white turkey platter.
And isn't Christmas just the time to start the set of fine china you've planned on for so long? Look at the Lenox and Minton lines or the new Raymond Loewy designs at The Cummins Shop, 96 Nassau.

Can I Have a New Bike? It's as good a year as any to say "Yes" to this old refrain. At Tiger Auto, 26 Witherspoon, there are four prices on English bikes: from $39.95 to $69.95. At The Wright Store, 130 Nassau, English bikes are hung from the ceiling (or were, when we paid our visit). They are $39.95, or $49.95 if you want light and generator, tool bag, pump, chrome fenders and tail light. Urken's puts its English bikes on the floor and sells them for $39.95.
Standard-make American bikes are $39.95 to $59.95 at Tiger Auto. Urken's has American bikes, too, in four or five different styles and sizes.

Electric trains are everywhere—full lines of American Flyer and Lionel at Tiger Auto, Urken's, and Pastimes over at Washington's Crossing.

Pedal cars that every child wants are thick as traffic on Nassau Street. Tiger Auto has a hook-and-ladder car, a racer, dump truck that dumps and attachments for its BMC tractor. Prices from $14.95 to $34.95.

We found pedal cars at Pastimes, too, and here—well, it's out in the country—they have a small station wagon.

Miniature heavy-duty trucks like the famous Smith-Miller ones, fill a tier of shelves at Pastimes. They are about two or three feet long, with price tags between $15 and $25. One is a hydraulic dump truck. It steers, and has a door that opens. A hydraulic lift truck raises a two-inch barrel automatically from the ground to the truck body.

For a big playroom buy Pastimes' pool table for $17.95, or a doll carriage nearly big enough for its owner—$25.

Grown-up Toys. Heavy shop tools stand at the top of many a man's list: at The Wright Store a jig-saw by Shop Master has 20-inch throat and built-in motor for $39.95. (Without motor, $29.95). An 8-inch tilting arbor saw is $64.50 with motor, $49.95 without.

At Fair's Hardware, 138 Nassau, you'll find De Walt's compact Power Shop that will saw a two-by-four or build a house. This store has just taken the De Walt franchise, by the way. They also have Black and Decker drill kits and electric saws.

When you shop for these bigger Christmas gifts, don't forget that many stores have lay-away plans, or budget arrangements to help you over the holiday hump. Meet us next week in the toy department.

Sports in Princeton

End of the Trail. For the first time in six years, a couple of rather frequently beaten teams will play together in Palmer Stadium on Saturday. The final game of the season against Dartmouth will start at 1:30.

The Indians have won just once as they move through their poorest campaign in 20 years. Their upset of Yale by the still astounding margin of 32-0 in their only success: Holy Cross, Navy, Army, Colgate, Harvard, Columbia and Cornell have all taken their measure. Princeton, on the other hand, has won five but has sustained three defeats (including the worst in its history) for the first time since 1949.

Dartmouth actually has about an even chance of defeating the Tigers. It came within two points (28-26) of upsetting Cornell last week, and the Ithacans now lead the Ivy League by a clear margin. The Hanover entry will catch Princeton well down the ladder from point of view of morale after losing to Yale, 26-24, in the final seconds in Palmer Stadium last week.

The Indians are strictly a passing team. Against Cornell, they completed 20 of 29 for 328 yards and they are being counted on to try to duplicate this feat here. A 160-lb. sophomore quarterback, Bill Beagle, is their principal aerial threat, with 209-lb. fullback Dick Jennison their strongest running back. Dave Thielscher is a stand-out end on a big line that has had difficulty achieving mobility.

It has been five years since Dartmouth last won over Princeton. Since that time, it has dropped the 19-13 thriller of 1949; been battered by the hurricane and a 13-7 loss in 1950; gone down to defeat, 13-0, in the game that caused the ruckus over the injury to Dick Kazmaier; and suffered a 33-0 drubbing last season. Despite its lack of success to date this fall, the Green has plenty of incentive this weekend.

Hard to Take. It is fortunate for football-loving Princetonians that they have a backlog of six successive victories over Yale to provide solace for last weekend's defeat. It was a heart-breaking loss; yet in a season when so many games have been won by a point or two in the final minutes, it is not logical to expect that good fortune will last forever.

As Cappy Cappon, Tiger end coach, put it, there are about 16 "ifs" in the game, so why try to pick one of them out and turn defeat into victory. Once they have been relegated to the background, the contest goes into the record books as one of the most exciting in 80 years of Yale-Princeton football. It is, actually, almost a carbon copy of the 26-23 melodrama of 1936 in which Yale overcame a 16-0 deficit and went on to triumph in Palmer Stadium.

Scoring action saw Princeton go 66 yards in 14 plays for a touchdown the first time it got the ball; add another seven points on Roy Flippin's 20-yard end sweep as the second quarter opened and increase its margin almost to the point of certain victory when Dick Martin booted a perfect 33-yard field goal. At half-time, it was 17-0 and Yale's only threat had been stopped on

No Hurry

Those who have bent every effort to get dilatory friends and relations through lunch and traffic jams to football games on time will learn from this remark why some spectators just won't hurry.

A woman still enjoying a pre-game cocktail while her male friends were showing obvious signs of getting ready to leave for Palmer Stadium commented: "I can't see why you have to make sure you get there for the kickoff. They always have another one to open the second half."

the Princeton 16 as the clock ran out.

The Elis then stormed back for 20 points in 15 minutes, going 67 yards after the third period kickoff and forcing two fumbles that set up drives of 37 and 31 yards. Princeton regained the lead at 24-20 on Roy Flippin's fine 68-yard dash to open the final period, almost protecting the margin.

Yale's winning touchdown was achieved in just 18 seconds, covering 55 yards with two passes and coming with only 24 seconds to go. The Tigers had won three games in similar fashion; this time, the sword of Damocles had fallen.

Unfortunate Injury. One incident marred the game. With the score 17-14 in Princeton's favor, Art Pitts returned the kickoff and was hit hard by three tacklers on the 31 yard line. Motion pictures confirm what many in the Stadium saw: Phil Tarasovic, 205-lb. tackle, caught Pitts in the face with his elbow, fracturing his jaw and causing a concussion that necessitated his removal on a stretcher to the University Infirmary. If nothing else, it was certainly unnecessary roughness; Pitts did not fumble until he lost consciousness and the proper penalty called for the act would have left Princeton in possession of the ball.

There were, however, so many developments affecting the outcome of the game that there is no point in trying to replay any part of it to achieve a different outcome. The loss occurred fundamentally because Yale's 207-lb. line had the drive and stamina to wear Princeton's down over a period of 60 minutes. For example, Princeton guards Blair Torrey and Richie Herbruck weigh around 175; Yale guards Dick Polich and Thorne Shugart are 190 and 215. That sort

Tigers' 1954 Schedule
 In contrast to this season, when Princeton scheduled eight home games, six will be played in Palmer Stadium next fall and three away. Trips will be made to New York, Providence and New Haven.
 Pennsylvania and Colgate are the newcomers to the list, replacing Navy and Lafayette. The schedule:
 Sept. 25, Rutgers; Oct. 2, Columbia at New York; 9, Pennsylvania; 16, Brown at Providence; 23, Cornell; 30, Colgate.
 Nov. 6, Harvard; 13, Yale at New Haven; 20, Dartmouth.

 of weight discrepancy is bound to have its effect.

Flippin Stands Out. The day's top performance was credited to Roy Flippin, Tiger sophomore, who ran 20 and 68 yards for touchdowns, passed to Bob Russell for another and gained 201 of Princeton's 262 yards. He played a solid game defensively and was withdrawn in the last two minutes when too worn out to continue. That created another "if:" would his presence in the final series of plays have meant the difference in the home team's favor? It's another question that will long be discussed but never answered.
 Up front, Richie Herbruck and center John Henn played well, Herbruck contributing a number of outstanding plays in the first half and Henn blocking a kick in addition to showing up well as line-hacker. The Tiger line, however, lacked the weight and the depth that Yale could show, and that was largely responsible for the third quarter that meant the ball game.

Looking Ahead. With Pitts lost and his immediate substitute, Frank Lovechio, also out with a broken nose suffered last week, Charlie Caldwell will start building for next year in the final game of the season. Chances are that an unknown sophomore, Frank Cosentino, will see considerable action at quarterback.

The 19-year old sophomore from Sparkill, N. Y., has been in action only briefly as a fullback. He has shown marked progress in practice, however, together with good blocking ability and is expected to be given a trial with the 1954 season in mind.

Bob Russell, starting wingback in the Yale game, is also lost for the final contest. In throwing a key block at midfield on Flippin's 68-yard run, Russell aggravated the leg injury that has frequently sidelined him this season.

Ray Pinch will be used alternately with Frank Agnew. Pinch is another sophomore who has come along well without drawing attention so far. There is a strong possibility that he will be the starting wingback next season.

Saturday's outcome depends almost entirely on what Princeton's morale factor is after the loss to Yale. The contest with Dartmouth is never an anticlimax in a good season, but when both teams have had disappointing years, the question of how much each cares is an undetermined quantity until they actually swing into action.

The Tigers' offense really rolled in the first half against Yale for the first time this season. If they care enough to play anything like that again, they will end the season going in the right direction.

The Mudlark (Mon.-Tues.), being revised, features a fine performance by Irene Dunne as England's Queen Victoria. Alex Guinness appears as Disraeli and the talented cast also includes Andrew Ray, Beatrice Campbell and Finlay Currie. Made in England.

Main Street to Broadway (Wed.-Thurs.) has a cast that should knock your eye out. Samples: Agnes Moorehead, Herb Shriner, Talullah Bankhead, Ethel and Lionel Barrymore, Shirley Booth, Mary Martin, Helen Hayes, Rodgers and Hammerstein, etc. Designed to plump for the legitimate theatre, this all-star affair with a sprawling plot should be a click. But isn't.

Sangaree (Fri. - Sat.) staggers around with a confusing pre-Revolutionary War tale of piracy, smuggling and romance. The elaborately done production in Technicolor features the talents, such as they are, of Fernando Lamas, Arlene Dahl and Patricia Medina. Playing in regular dimension.

PROCTOR HALL CONCERT

Maurice Eisenberg, the noted American cellist, returns this Sunday to complete the playing of the J. S. Bach suites for unaccompanied cello. Second in the annual series presented at Proctor Hall of the Graduate College, the concert is open to the public without charge under the sponsorship of the Friends of Music at Princeton. The program will start at 3:30 p.m.

Mr. Eisenberg will play Suite No. V in C minor; Suite No. IV in E flat, and Suite No. III in C major. This will complete the playing of these Bach works which were brought to the attention of the music public by the recent recordings of Pablo Casals, under whom Mr. Eisenberg has studied.

Princeton High ran roughshod over an undermanned Hun squad Saturday to the tune of 46-6. Burton and Taylor tallied two touchdowns apiece as the Little Tigers spotted the home forces a six-point first period margin and then rolled to their fifth victory in eight games.

Vic Perone, Hun's captain, seemed destined to lead his mates to a repeat of last year's 19-13 triumph as he raced 42 yards on the first play from scrimmage and, several plays later, passed to Jim Lavan in the end zone.

Princeton High's superior manpower began to tell late in the period, however, as the Blue and White tallied on the fourth play of the second quarter to climax a 50-yard drive, Burton driving over from the 11 and adding the point. Minutes later the Little Tigers' co-captain scored again on a one-yard buck to cap a 53-yard march.

Although coach Joe Jingoli cleared his bench in the second half, the visitors rolled for three tallies in the third quarter and added two more in the last to assure themselves of their first winning season in two years.

Basketball League. Four divisions will compete in the Y.M.C.A. basketball league this winter, with play starting early in January. The adult group, under the direction of Isaiah Fisher, will meet Tuesday evenings in the Quarry Street School gym; the Hi-Y division, directed by John Mack, will play up the High School gym on Wednesday nights; the Junior Hi-Y's, led by Harold Davis, will compete at the Quarry Street School on Monday evenings; and the Gra-Y group, directed by Charles Hurford, at Quarry Street on Thursday nights.

Teams interested in playing have been requested to sign up as soon as possible with a roster and team manager. The Hi-Y, Junior Hi-Y and Gra-Y teams will consist of clubs in the Y.M.C.A., and each must have a manager or coach to participate.

Country Day Splits. Princeton Country Day's soccer squad last week notched its second victory over the Witherspoon Street School in as many starts, 1-0. Chip Woodward provided the Blue and White with its margin of victory as he tallied in the third period.

IF YOU LIKE TOWN TOPICS, the best way to show your appreciation is to mention it to our advertisers.

Monday saw PCD close out its season with a well-deserved 1-1 tie with Peddie, which had beaten it earlier this year. Austin Sullivan scored on a penalty kick. The 1953 mark was accordingly above .500, being pegged at 4-3-1.

While the soccer team was winning, Country Day's six-man football team dropped a 39-28 decision to Lambertville, its second loss in a row to the visitors. Outstanding for the home forces was captain Lance Odden.

Princeton Basketball. Princeton University's varsity basketball five will play 24 games over the course of its 54th successive season of intercollegiate competition. It was announced this week by R. Kenneth Fairman, Director of Athletics.

Playing away on December 9 against Lafayette, the Tigers will open at home three days later against Fordham in Dillon Gym. A tour of northern New York and western Pennsylvania over the Christmas recess will climax in the opening game of the Eastern Intercollegiate League season against Harvard at Cambridge on January 9.

ATTENTION, ALL MEN!

If you're in a quandary, we're here to help you out. Chances are you find Christmas-buying in the feminine line a time-consuming problem. We have an expert sales staff ready to help you, to advise you on the proper perfume to give your wife, secretary, sister and maiden aunt.

We can help you select from the widest assortment for miles around . . . from the top domestic brands and the famous imports. These are just a few of the names:

- | | | |
|------------|----------------|-----------|
| • COTY | • SCHIAPARELLI | • LELONG |
| • YARDLEY | • CORDAY | • CHANEL |
| • CARON | • MATCHABELLI | • DANA |
| • GUERLAIN | • LENTHERIC | • FABERGE |

Come in or telephone . . . do it early this year . . . and don't forget to ask for FREE gift-wrapping!
